Statement on Paid Family Leave Art Pulaski, Executive Secretary-Treasurer

Paid Family Leave is a law we're proud to have sponsored because it is a win-win program for workers and employers. It gives working people the time and flexibility to be there when their families need them – whether they are new parents or caring for sick family member. The Paid Leave Program costs employers nothing and helps them retain qualified, trained employees. It has made California a leader in recognizing the economic and social value of family-friendly work policy.
